Nationwide acceptance

With more than 55,000 participating pharmacies

The Rx Pay Card prescription drug card program does not require a health questionnaire and may be used at over 55,000 participating pharmacies throughout the United States. For a full list of prescriptions, visit www.advancedrugcard.com.

The Rx Pay Card program has the following tiers:

- Tier 1 – Generic drugs
Up to $10 per prescription
- Tier 2 – Brand name and select generic drugs
Up to $20 per prescription
- Tier 3 – Brand name and select generic drugs
Up to $50 per prescription
- Tier 4 – Brand name drugs
Discount only

Please note: Not all FDA-approved generic, preferred or brand name drugs are included in tiers 1, 2, 3 or 4. A complete list of all drugs included in this program can be found at www.advancedrugcard.com. Drug pricing and tier position are subject to change without notice. Tier position and pricing are only for quantities stated; additional quantities may result in higher cost. THIS IS NOT AN INSURANCE PRODUCT.

Frequently Asked Questions

What if the brand name drug I am taking is not discounted?

If you are currently taking a medication that has similar active ingredients or is used to treat the same condition as a covered prescription on the list, you may be eligible to receive discounts. To take advantage of the full program savings on listed preferred drugs, you should ask your pharmacist or a doctor to change your medication, where medically appropriate, to a similar product listed on the covered prescription list.

Is the Rx Pay Card available for child-only use?

Yes. If the Rx Pay Card is for a child only (no adults will be using the card), list the child's name and information as the applicant. The parent or legal guardian must sign the enrollment form.

When can I begin saving on my prescription?

The effective date is the day after the administrative office receives your application and your first month's payment. Your identification card and member enrollment kit are instantly issued online.

Is the Rx Pay Card available in all states?

The Rx Pay Card is available in all states except California.

How will I know if a generic equivalent is available?

Simply ask your local pharmacist or call the customer service department to find out about generic equivalents for your prescription. Also, ask your doctor to prescribe generics whenever possible and appropriate. (Your new member enrollment kit will include helpful materials you can share with your doctor.)
